

Suffolk Theology Forum

Data Protection – Selection of Options Impact of the extension of the Data Protection Regulations in 2018

Simply put, the Data Protection Regulations which come into force on 25th May 2018 mean that we cannot communicate with you unless you give us your specific consent to do so. You can give consent by completing and returning this form.

What is covered by these regulations?

The regulations cover any information that we might hold on you personally, name, address, email address, telephone number and any mails you have sent us - collectively the "Data". Please read "What may we do with the "Data" before completing the form.

What may we do with the "Data"?

Our use of the "Data" is confined to advancing the aim of the Suffolk Theology Forum which is 'Exploring Christian theological issues in an open, non-partisan way'. It will never be shared with any third party. nor used to publicise non STF events.

If you give us consent, we shall contact you to send you details of our forthcoming meetings

Consent may be revoked at any time

Please indicate your wishes in respect of the data that we will hold by placing a cross in the box below, fill in your name, email address, postal address and telephone number and then date and sign the form and return it to the Data Protection Officer.

I give Suffolk Theology Forum "Consent" as defined above

Name email Address

Postal addressPost code.....

Telephone No..... Signature..... Date

Please post the completed form to the Data Protection Officer, Suffolk Theology Forum, Tonweya, Church Street, Occold, Eye, Suffolk, IP23 7PS